

FILM INDEPENDENT'S

LA FILM FESTIVAL

PRESENTED BY
Los Angeles Times

SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Film Independent's Los Angeles Film Festival, presented by the Los Angeles Times, showcases the best of American and international cinema. The 2011 Festival will take place in the vibrant, burgeoning independent arts community in downtown Los Angeles. The Festival runs from June 16-26, 2011 and will encompass venues throughout the city, centered at L.A. LIVE. The Festival's home downtown is reflective of its continued growth and efforts to embrace the cultural diversity and energy of Los Angeles. The Festival will present its screenings and events at the new Regal Cinemas L.A. LIVE Stadium 14, the REDCAT (Roy and Edna Disney/CalArts Theater), the Downtown Independent, the GRAMMY Museum, Orpheum Theatre, Nokia Theatre, and California Plaza. The Festival will also continue its tradition of nighttime screenings at the outdoor John Anson Ford Amphitheater in Hollywood.

Over the past 16 years, the Los Angeles Film Festival has grown from being held in one theater with 5,700 attendees to include a sprawling list of event venues that attract more than 92,000 attendees.

The Festival screens more than 200 narrative, documentary, short form, and international features to a diverse audience. From VIP galas to celebrity-studded premieres, the Los Angeles Film Festival highlights film from every corner of the globe. In addition, the Festival presents a variety of panels, educational seminars, live music performances, and free outdoor screenings. Kicking off the festivities is our exclusive and intimate Filmmaker Retreat, hosted by the Festival's Guest Director. Past Guest Directors have included Kathryn Bigelow, Sydney Pollock, Curtis Hanson, and George Lucas, who has also hosted the retreat at his Skywalker Ranch.

The Los Angeles Film Festival generates more than 2.3 billion impressions through TV, print, radio, and online press. Media outlets such as Los Angeles Times, Entertainment Tonight, Access Hollywood, Variety, Wired, USA Today, People Magazine, and Entertainment Weekly featured the 2010 Festival's programs and events.

By sponsoring the Los Angeles Film Festival you join an elite group of companies. The event offers a visible opportunity to promote your company within a respected property in the film industry. Companies such as American Express, Best Buy, Coca-Cola, Canon, Kodak, Los Angeles Times, Movado, Subaru, Target, and ZonePerfect Nutrition Bars, have sponsored Film Independent because their businesses are aligned with the visionary talent and excitement represented by the Los Angeles Film Festival.

Through a mixture of access, exposure, hospitality, and experiential activation each sponsor receives a customized package of benefits that ensure its sponsorship and marketing goals are met.
